

JAYASHREE GOPAL

Jayashree is an Indian, born, bred and educated. Though of South Indian origins, she has travelled extensively and lived in South, West and North India and is therefore a blend of Indian sub-cultures and speaks many Indian languages. After enjoying a corporate career in hospitality, followed by a decade in Banking, she has devoted the past decade to 3 causes – her family, travel, and supporting a range of causes – from instilling Indian cultural values and knowledge of Indian culture and history in children, to aiding victims of the Mumbai floods.

Her affability, positive attitude, down-to-earth nature and practical nature defines her approach to life, and she carries a deep commitment to help others, be it in day-to-day life, or in furthering causes dear to her heart.

She recently moved from Mumbai to Geneva along with her husband and 2 daughters.
